3. Guru Services.

If elected by Customer, the following Payment, Tax Filing, Check Printing, Year End, Complete Pay, Call Center, and Carrier Eligibility Services will be made available for Customer's use.

3.1. Payment Services

- 3.1.1. Payment services (i) rely solely on timely and accurate Customer Data provided to the Payroll Service by Customer and (ii) facilitate the transfer of payroll-related funds from Customer's designated bank accounts to Employee, Third Party, and Authorized Tax Agency designated bank accounts via ACH.
- 3.1.2. If Customer fails to finalize and submit its Time and Attendance data or payroll run in a timely manner, then PeopleGuru shall have no liability for any failure to process Customer's payroll or the corresponding ACH payroll transactions in a timely manner, or at all.
- 3.1.3. Customer shall maintain a sufficient balance in its Payroll Funding Account and its Fee Funding Account to cover its current payroll liabilities, all applicable Service fees, and charges to cover any NSF or miscellaneous service fees. If for any reason Customer's bank refuses to honor an ACH draft, an NSF fee will be charged to Customer as PeopleGuru's reasonable costs and PeopleGuru may immediately terminate this Agreement without written notice and without obligation to perform payroll processing or ACH payroll transactions, or to make any currently due or future payroll tax deposits or tax return filings.
- 3.1.4. Customer agrees that each ACH Entry to an Employee account will be currently authorized pursuant to a payee authorization signed by the Employee and held by Customer. Customer shall assume full responsibility for all ACH account entries and agrees to instruct its Employees to use the Service only as intended. Customer agrees to prevent the use of the Service by its Employees or end users for nefarious or fraudulent reasons.
- 3.1.5. Customer shall be responsible to review the Setup Policies and payroll reports provided by the Service to ensure the accuracy and timeliness of Third Party payments. Customer shall be solely responsible for the accuracy of Third Party payments and for any penalties, fines, administrative fees, late charges, interest and taxes that may be or become due as a result of erroneous or improper Third Party payments or the failure to make proper Third Party payments.
- 3.1.6. Customer shall be liable for each ACH Entry made to its Payroll Funding Account or the account of any Employee or Third Party initiated by PeopleGuru hereunder. In the event PeopleGuru determines, in its sole discretion, not to terminate this Agreement following Customer's failure to fully fund an ACH Entry to Customer's Payroll Funding Account, Customer unconditionally agrees to immediately pay PeopleGuru upon demand the sum of any unfunded payroll plus all fees and charges as set forth in this Agreement (including any debit which is returned to PeopleGuru because of insufficient or uncollected funds or for any other reason).

- 3.1.7. The provision of all services requiring the debit or credit of accounts shall be provided through an originating bank (the "Originating Bank"). PeopleGuru and Customer may each be required to enter into separate agreements with the Originating Bank. Customer shall execute all documents requested by PeopleGuru or the Originating Bank to originate debit or credit entries through the nationwide automated clearing house system on a bank account designated by Customer (each, an "ACH Entry"), and provide any other documents or information on an ongoing basis that may be requested by PeopleGuru or the Originating Bank to effectuate such ACH Entries.
 - 3.1.8. Customer shall have sufficient funds no later than three (3) banking days prior to payroll check date, (or as otherwise set forth in this Agreement), except when the payroll check date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or a bank holiday, in such case the funds must be available one banking day earlier. Customer may change its authorization to debit its Payroll Funding Account by executing and delivering to PeopleGuru a new authorization to debit and a voided check for any new account at least twenty (20) days prior to the effective date of such change.
 - 3.1.9. Each Party shall cooperate with the other Party to recover funds erroneously credited to any Employee's account.
- 3.2. Tax Filing Services
- 3.2.1. During the term of this Agreement for Authorized Tax Agencies, PeopleGuru shall: i) collect payroll tax liabilities and receive and hold those funds in an account separate from PeopleGuru's general accounts, ii) deposit payroll taxes in a timely manner, and iii) prepare and file payroll tax returns in a timely manner. PeopleGuru shall be liable for tax filing penalties and interest charges for its failure to do so to the extent such charges were caused solely by PeopleGuru. PeopleGuru shall not be responsible for penalties and interest payments that arise as a result of its reliance on erroneous Customer Data entered into the Service or due to Customer's failure to correct its Payroll Setup Policies or Tax Agency Setup Policies or its failure to notify PeopleGuru promptly via CRM of its desire to obtain assistance in doing so.
 - 3.2.2. Customer warrants that Customer Data entered into the Service is accurate and further authorizes PeopleGuru to rely on Customer Data to prepare, deposit, and file Customer's payroll taxes for all Authorized Tax Agencies.
 - 3.2.3. Customer is responsible to use the interactive web pages and reports provided by the Service to review and ensure the accuracy of the payroll gross-to-net calculations, taxable wages, withholding amounts and other relevant reporting items to be filed by PeopleGuru, either electronically or by paper tax returns with the relevant tax agency, at least ten (10) days prior to the filing deadline for Authorized Tax Agencies, whether the corresponding deadline be monthly, quarterly, or annually.
 - 3.2.4. Customer is responsible to review and ensure the accuracy of its Tax Agency Setup Policies prior to using the Service in Production Use. Subsequent to Production Use, Customer is responsible to review and ensure changes made to its Tax Agency Setup Policies are thoroughly reviewed and tested prior to deployment in Production Use.
 - 3.2.5. This Agreement does not relieve Customer of any tax payment liabilities. Customer shall be obligated to pay immediately any tax payment liabilities that are found by PeopleGuru to be incorrectly computed, under withheld, or otherwise incorrectly processed, whether or not those tax liabilities are a result of defects in the Service or the actions or inactions of PeopleGuru. In the event that tax amounts have been over collected, those funds once disbursed to an Authorized Tax Agency will be treated as a credit toward Customer's future liabilities with that Authorized Tax Agency.
 - 3.2.6. Customer shall continue to be responsible for maintaining its own archival tax record keeping.
 - 3.2.7. Customer shall immediately provide PeopleGuru with copies of any notices or correspondence received from any Authorized Tax Agency with respect to any tax return(s) or tax deposit(s) made by PeopleGuru and PeopleGuru shall have no liability for penalties or interest accrued if Customer fails to immediately provide PeopleGuru with copies of any notices or correspondence received from any Authorized Tax Agency with respect to any tax return(s) or tax deposit(s) made by PeopleGuru. Customer shall immediately provide PeopleGuru with notification via the CRM of any changes that will affect the withdrawal of funds or the depositing of payroll taxes or the filing of tax returns.

- 3.2.8. PeopleGuru shall debit the Tax Funding Account in order to make the necessary payroll tax deposits and collect any fees due to PeopleGuru. Customer shall maintain a sufficient balance in its Tax Funding Account to cover current payroll tax liabilities, all applicable Service fees, and charges to cover any NSF or miscellaneous service fees. If for any reason Customer's bank refuses to honor an ACH draft, an NSF fee will be charged to Customer as PeopleGuru's reasonable costs and PeopleGuru may immediately terminate this Agreement without written notice and without obligation to make then due or future payroll tax deposits or tax return filings.
 - 3.2.9. PeopleGuru shall have no liability for failure to make deposits or filings if Customer has not provided it with power of attorney or accurate and adequate information to make the necessary deposits or filings or if Customer fails to maintain sufficient funds to cover such payroll tax obligations. In no event shall PeopleGuru be responsible or liable for the filing of payroll tax returns for Prior Compensation or tax information provided by the Customer to PeopleGuru that was in error.
 - 3.2.10. Customer unconditionally agrees to promptly execute any documents PeopleGuru's designee may require as a condition of providing Tax Filing services to Customer. Customer agrees that its failure to execute any such documents, or the breach of any of the material terms and conditions of such documents, shall constitute a breach of this Agreement and PeopleGuru shall have no liability for failure to make deposits or filings.
 - 3.2.11. Customer shall have sufficient funds no later than three (3) banking days prior to payroll check date, (or as otherwise set forth in this Agreement), except when the payroll check date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or a bank holiday, in such case the funds must be available one banking day earlier. Customer may change its authorization to debit its Tax Funding Account by executing and delivering to PeopleGuru a new authorization to debit and a voided check for any new account at least ten (10) days prior to the effective date of such change.
- 3.3. Year-End Services
- 3.3.1. Year-end services shall consist of the printing of Year End Filings and submittal of tax returns to Authorized Tax Agencies. Customer shall be responsible for mail and courier fees as set forth in this Agreement or as otherwise incurred by PeopleGuru.
 - 3.3.2. Customer is responsible to use the interactive web pages and reports provided by the Service to review and ensure the accuracy of the Year End Filings to be submitted by PeopleGuru either electronically or via paper forms to the relevant tax agency, at least ten (10) days prior to the filing deadline for each Authorized Tax Agency.

3.4. Complete Pay Services

- 3.4.1. Complete pay services shall be provided by PeopleGuru to: i) collect Employee payroll net pay amounts from Customer's Payroll Funding Account concurrent with the collection of other payroll liabilities, ii) receive and hold those funds in an account separate from PeopleGuru's general accounts, and iii) make those funds available to Employees either by a printed payroll check or an ACH Entry to the Employee's designated bank account on the payroll check date.
- 3.4.2. Customer shall maintain a sufficient balance in its Payroll Funding Account and its Fee Funding Account to cover its current payroll liabilities, Employee net pay amounts, all applicable Service fees, and charges to cover any NSF or miscellaneous service fees. If for any reason Customer's bank refuses to honor an ACH draft, an NSF fee will be charged to Customer as PeopleGuru's reasonable costs and PeopleGuru may immediately terminate this Agreement without written notice and without obligation to perform payroll processing or ACH payroll transactions, or to make then due or future payroll tax deposits or tax return filings.
- 3.4.3. PeopleGuru shall return to Customer Employee net pay amounts in excess of twenty dollars, either quarterly if they exceed that amount or on an as-needed basis if they don't, whichever is less frequent, held in its complete pay account that have not cleared within 180 days from the original check date. PeopleGuru shall be permitted to set off the amounts returned to Customer for unpaid Service fees, if any, existing at that time.
- 3.4.4. Customer recognizes that there may be instances where PeopleGuru will not be able to resolve an Employee call or issue without Customer's assistance. Immediately upon execution of the Order Form, Customer will designate a contact person for resolving support problems that require intervention by Customer's personnel and/or a Customer third party vendor.

4. Hosting Services.

Standard hosting services consist of a common infrastructure shared with other PeopleGuru customers and their end users. Dedicated hosting services, if subscribed to by Customer in this Agreement, consist of virtualized dedicated web server(s), database server(s), application server(s), and the software components necessary to operate the Service.

5. Data Exchange Service.

- 5.1. Data Exchange Service shall refer to electronic data interchange either via web services, file transfer, or other means provided by PeopleGuru and as authorized by Customer to transfer information from the Service or into the Service from a third party.
- 5.2. Customer shall be responsible for auditing and verification of the accuracy of all data transferred via the Data Exchange Service.

6. Support.

Customer acknowledges that all support requests will be properly documented and submitted to PeopleGuru's CRM during Normal Business Hours and in accordance with PeopleGuru's current support policy. Except for reporting service outages, all support requests that are not received during Normal Business Hours will be subject to additional after hours support fees as provided for in the Order Form.

7. Hardware as a Service Services.

Hardware as a Service Services provide Customer with Timeclock hardware subscription service that includes supplying Timeclock hardware and Hardware Support Services. Timeclock hardware is made available to Customer for its dedicated use during the subscription period but remains the property of PeopleGuru.

If elected by Customer, the following Hardware Services will be made available for Customer's use:

- 7.1. Hardware Support Fees.

- 7.1.1. The cost of Hardware Support for PeopleGuru Timeclock hardware (set forth in the applicable Order Form) is automatically included with hardware obtained under the Hardware Services subscription option (and any charges therefore are already included in the monthly subscription fees).
- 7.1.2. The cost of Hardware Support is not automatically included for Customer-owned Timeclock hardware. Customer must obtain PeopleGuru's prior written consent to use its own hardware with the Service. Such consent is subject to PeopleGuru's review of the hardware to determine its compatibility, age, and condition and in PeopleGuru's sole discretion. If elected by Customer and approved by PeopleGuru, Customer-owned Timeclock hardware will be subscribed to Hardware Support Services under the terms herein and may be used with the Service and Customer shall pay the applicable fees in the Order Form. PeopleGuru makes no representation that Customer-owned hardware will be supported in the future. If Customer terminates Hardware Support Services, the Customer-owned Timeclocks may not be used with the Service.

8. Hardware Support Services.

PeopleGuru will maintain the Timeclock hardware to be free from defects in material and workmanship as follows: Any parts found to be defective (except as specifically excluded below) shall be replaced or repaired, at PeopleGuru's or its designee's option, without charge for parts or labor, provided that the Timeclock hardware has been properly installed and maintained by Customer and provided that such hardware has been used in accordance with this Agreement and has not been subject to abuse or tampering. The foregoing repairs and replacements may be made only by PeopleGuru or its designee and will be made only after PeopleGuru or its designee is notified of a problem, receives delivery from Customer of the Timeclock hardware at issue and determines that it results from defective materials or workmanship. Notwithstanding the foregoing, PeopleGuru may deliver a temporary replacement item for Customer's use while such determination is being made with respect to the Timeclock hardware in question. Repairs and replacements required as a result of (i) damage, defects, or malfunctions resulting from misuse, accident, neglect, tampering, unusual physical or electrical stress, or causes other than normal or intended use; (ii) failure of Customer to provide and maintain a suitable installation environment; (iii) any alterations made to the Timeclock hardware or the attachment of any devices not provided by PeopleGuru to the Timeclock Hardware; or (iv) malfunctions resulting from use of badges or supplies not approved by PeopleGuru shall be billed to Customer at PeopleGuru's then-current rates. No Timeclock Hardware support is provided at the Customer site. Customer shall bear all delivery/shipping costs and all risk of loss during shipment/delivery of Timeclock hardware relating to Hardware as a Service or Hardware Support Services.

- 8.1. Timeclock hardware subscription service for each newly acquired Timeclock hardware subscription is for a minimum of eighteen (18) months. Thereafter, the term of the Hardware Services subscription shall be cancellable with 90 days' notice.
- 8.2. Upon termination or cancellation of this Agreement, Customer shall, at its expense, return all PeopleGuru-owned Timeclock hardware to PeopleGuru in accordance with PeopleGuru's instructions. The Timeclock hardware shall be returned in as good condition as received by Customer, normal wear and tear excepted. In the event the Timeclock hardware is not returned within ninety (90) days, Customer agrees to purchase it at the prevailing manufacturer's suggested retail price. If timely payment for the Timeclock hardware is not made by Customer, PeopleGuru shall have the right to take immediate possession of such hardware.
